Jack Tramiel, founder of "Commodore Business Machines International" deceased at 83 last sunday. His most famoust products was the PET 2001, VC20, the legendary C64 and Atari ST. Later he created the unsuccessful Jaguar console, Atari's last videogame system.

More information at:

News article Computerworld (German)

Forums discussion at Radio-Paralax.de